

Organization of Bon Homme School District #04-2

The Bon Homme #04-2 School Board has a responsibility to the State of South Dakota, the communities it represents, and the personnel under its hire. It is the purpose of these policies to set forth the procedures by which the Board carries out these responsibilities as well as the specific policies which have been adopted to provide a continuous and consistent plan of operation. The Board, at its regular organizational meeting in July of each year, shall be organized by administering the Oath of Office to newly elected members and by electing a President and Vice President.

This school district is organized as an independent school district under the Laws of the State of South Dakota. It is known as Bon Homme School District #04-2. The communities of Springfield, Tabor, Tyndall, the Bon Homme Hutterische Colony, the Dawson Colony, and the respective rural areas are included in this District.

The School Board is legally responsible for the operation of the school system and is the final authority on any matters of school policy or business. It is organized in accordance with the Laws of the State.

The records of the school and of the School Board are kept by the Business Manager who is hired by the School Board and functions under the direction of the superintendent.

In as much as the organization, management, and control of the school district is vested by Law in the Board, the Board hereby establishes and will continue to maintain policies and bylaws, amending them as needed, to guide its internal operations.

Those policies shall always be drafted, adopted, and amended with full consideration for the Board's wish to provide education of the best obtainable quality for the residents of our school district within the limitations of their ability to support it.

Legal References: SDCL 13-8-1; 13-8-2; 13-8-7.1; 13-8-39; Title 13

Adopted: July 2000

Revised: December 14, 2009; October 17, 2019; January 11, 2021